A BOMBSHELL IN THE CAMP.

HOW THE RADICALS IN WASHINGTON RECEIVED THE RESULT OF THE NEW YORK ELECTION.

D. P. writes from Washington to the Cincinnati Commercial:

There is no denial of the fact that the election in New York has had a somewhat depressing effect upon the government people here, who, up to that event counted their two-thirds majority in Congress, and swung on as if there were no constituencies taking note of their shortcomings. That the City of New York, under the corrupt control of the most infamous organization known to political humanity, should exhibit a huge majority in favor of the Democracy was expected. But the result in the rural districts fills our friends with dismay. It is the handwriting on the wall, and means death.

And yet, judging from the talk of Republican officials heretofore, one would gather that the defeat of the Republicans in a triumph of the Democracy was an event to be expected, and, whether pleasant or not, one to be regarded with philosophical indifference. But death, however long anticipated, cannot be made familiar. We look the inevitable calamity in the face until the face assumes that form, and then we shrink in dismay. I take my meals at Welcker's, where quite a number of Congressmen feed, and the morning the news reached us, and each man opened his morning journal to read the news, a dead silence, a deep gloom, fell upon the room, so marked that a stranger would have taken us for a collection of undertakers, refreshing ourselves upon the cold baked meats of a funeral.

The mass of the thieves and swindlers that have crowded upon the Republican craft, until it is fairly swamped, for the first time begin to realize that their days are numbered—their doom sealed. What with this iniquitous protective tariff that grinds down the multitude that a few may prosper; what with the hard times and the thousand and one gigantic legislative swindles for a few monopolists, the people sicken and cry out for a change.

Old Pig Iron says, in the deepest tone of a voice that sounds like echoes from a rotten coffin: "The Demo-cratic partee will never consent, sir, to a re duc-tion of the tariff. The leaders may advocate such a ru-in-ous pol-i-cee when out of power, but when in power, s i r, they dare not."

Poor devil, I think I see him bugging a protective tariff from the Democracy. The instincts of that celebrated organization are not so keen and perfect as they once were, but enough are left to control the party on that subject, and indeed, all others of a financial sort. A Democrat is a man who hates taxation. The support of a government of any sort is very offensive to him, and the leaders are popular so long as they cater to this healthy prejudice. Jack Cade's financial notions, as portrayed by Shakespeare, are peculiarly Democratic. I see Jack in Congress now, returned by a constituency in the full exercise of Democratic interests in the direction. The Hon. Wm. Mungen is a true type of the Democracy.—He is their Jack Cade to day, and his ides of a financial policy is to wipe out old scores and to begin again. This sort will have the next House of Representatives, and not the learned Brooks and volatile Cox, who represent the Democratic bondholders. Wait until Brick Pomeroy & Co. put in an appearance, and then let Kelley plead for a protective tariff. It will be good fun to note how such financiers will receive and act upon such propositions.—And it will be, further on, great comfort to see how the people will rally around and sustain these gentlemen in their short cut to prosperity. I think I hear Brick on the floor promulgating his ides of a financial treatment of the national debt.

RUNNING IN DEBT.

A young man running in debt is a painful sight. The disposition to do this is the forerunner and exponent of all evil. Apostolic authority says: "The love of money is the root of all evil." But when a young man loves money so well as to get it while knowing he cannot repay, or be willing to take it before he has honestly earned it, there is, in most cases, lying behind this some passion so strong as to thus overbear his moral principles in clamoring for its indulgence. Pleasure, especially unlawful pleasure, is a perilous and exhaustive thing. Lawful, necessary, and healthful pleasure, like the pure mountain air, and the gushing waters of the mountain spring, has been made accessible by our Creator at comparatively little trouble and expense.

Any indulgency may be known as unlawful when it can be reached only by running in debt. The highway of sin is an expensive road to travel. The fare, the charges, are all high. And they have to be paid twice over, not only in currency, but also in something more precious than gold, quarried from the depths and springs of our being. No person ever travelled on that highway, so attractive in prospect, without becoming bankrupt and pawning his own peace and lifelong happiness before he gets to the end of his journey.

Whenever a young man of moderate salary is seen always cramped for money, and ready to borrow of his friends, he is surely on the downward grade of respectability. Willingness to run in debt is in itself a great vice. It is caused by the wish to gratify unlawful craving lying behind, as yet, perhaps, undisclosed to the eyes of the world. Experienced men really judge what this want of money indicates, and however fair your character may seem in other respects, they will be satisfied from this alone that there is some hidden taint and unsoundness.

However small your income, always live within your means. There is less unhappiness in doing without unnecessary things than there is in the consciousness of being in debt. Herodotus says that among the ancient Persians "to tell a lie is considered by them the greatest disgrace; next to that to be in debt; and this, for many reasons, but especially because they think that one who runs in debt must of necessity tell lies." Does your experience, your conscience, tell you this is true?

Always keep an unspent and unpawned dime in the bottom pocket. Its touch will always be invigorating, and, with talismanic power, send through your soul an energy making you carry a countenance flushed with honorable frankness. This simple dime is invaluable as the symbol of manly independence. The consciousness of debt in a young man begets incipient meanness of character, and when continued develops this into a confirmed habit, tainting the whole nature.

A man yet in his prime, who has accumulated a fortune of millions by honest industry, said: "I began with a determination to keep within my wages. When getting only twenty five cents a day I always saved something." This principle has carried him, and will carry you, to high elevation of character, to great influence, and to independent fortune.

JUDGE READE.

This Judicial light of North Carolina is now being "edited" by one of his law students of "Moccasin Gap," the ancient appellation of the Governor's town of Roxborough.

In regard to this name, we will state that we heard Maj. Phipps, one of the oldest inhabitants of the town, testify that "Moccasin Gap" was the original name, in the famous suit of the State against Jesse Chambers, a suit in which Judge Reade and the whole "Gap" were greatly interested.

Judge Reade is classed by his party, among those Union men who, like Senator Pool, (we mean sneaking John) could take the test oath but for a "technicality!"

This "technicality," in sneaking John's case, was his having sworn to support the Confederacy, and having run for and acted as Confederate elector on the Jeff Davis ticket in his election as President of the Confederacy.

There was a "technicality" in Judge Reade's case, too. He was a member of the Confederate Congress, and while serving in that capacity voted for the following resolution:

"Resolved by the Congress of the Confederate States, That the present is deemed a fitting occasion to remind the people of the Confederate States, that they are engaged in a struggle for the preservation both of liberty and civilization; and that no sacrifice of life or fortune can be too costly, which may be requisite to secure to themselves and their posterity the enjoyment of these inappreciable blessings; and also to assure them that, in the judgment of the Congress, the resources of the country, if developed with energy, husbanded with care and applied with fidelity, are more than sufficient to support the most protracted war which it can be necessary to wage for our independence, and to exhort them, by every consideration which can influence freemen and patriots, to a magnanimous surrender of all personal and party feuds, to an indignant rebuke of every exhibition of factious temper in whatever quarter or from whatever pretext it may be made; to a generous support of all branches of the government, in the legitimate exercise of their constitutional powers; and to that harmonious, unselfish and patriotic co-operation which can alone impart to our cause the irresistable strength which springs from united counsel, fraternal feelings and fervent devotion to the public weal."

This resolution Judge Reade supported and enforced with an address, which he signed in common with Wigfall and the present loyal Orr of South Carolina.

This Address was circulated throughout the Confederate States and met the approval of Governor Holden.

Judge Reade, in the Address, among other things said:

"The war in which we are engaged was wickedly, and against our protest and the most earnest efforts to the contrary, forced upon us."

"We charge the responsibility of this war upon the United States. They are accountable for the blood and havoc and ruin it has caused."

We have tried to forgive the North for the war, and if they had allowed that mother in black, and those weeping girls, at Arlington to strew flowers on the graves of the Confederate dead, and Judge Reade had not poisoned our mind with such sentiments as those contained in the above resolution and the Address, we might by this time, have forgiven. As it is, we must pause and consider the matter of forgiving, until the post offices are re-established by our parental government.

Let the Judge's student continue his labor of love, under the Judge's tutorage.

OFFICIAL TURPITUDE.

On the 21st of May, John W. Stephens, late State Senator from Caswell county, was mysteriously murdered in open day, in the town of Yanceyville. The news reached this city a day or two afterwards, first in the shape of rumor, and then by direct communication.

On the announcement of his death, and before the result of the investigation by a Jury of Inquest was made known, Governor Holden caused to be sent from this city to Pool and Abbott, U. S. Senators at Washington, a telegraphic dispatch, giving an account of the murder, and declaring it the work of the organized band of Ku Klux, in this State. In order to strengthen his statement and make the charge appear as plausible as possible, and at the same time make the impression on Congress that Republicans were the victims of Democratic or Conservative violence in that county, he added the statement that a colored member of the Legislature had been run out of the county to save his life. These dispatches were read before the Congress and had the intended effect on its Radical members, as well as on the public mind at the North.

This action on the part of the Governor places him in the light of "a swift witness" to a falsehood—a falsehood that he, himself, had information of within forty eight hours after its utterance, and yet he has not, up to this hour, had the magnanimity and honesty to set it in its true light before the public, and thus undo the mischief he was so hasty in perpetrating.

We allude to that part of the statement, that the colored Representative, (Wilson Carey) had been run out of the county, whereas, the Standard had received and read a letter from this same man, dated at Yanceyville, two days after the dispatch was sent off, and the letter was published, thus publicly giving the lie, in his own organ, to the mischievous and false dispatch he had sent to Washington. The Standard has another letter from Carey, written from Caswell, showing he is still there, but still the Governor will fail to correct his former statement.

What will the world think of a high official—a Governor of a State—who will stoop to such disingenuous actions for the sake of villafying the people of his State and advancing the interest of his party!

But this is not all. Gov. Holden, in this dispatch, distinctly made the charge, and by sending it to Pool and Abbott, gave it the character of an official statement, that the death of Stephens was the work of a secret organization known as the "Ku Klux Klan." He had no evidence to support the statement, and in the absence of such evidence, this semi-official statement is indicative of political and moral turpitude seldom or never witnessed before in one occupying the honorable position of the Chief Executive of a State.

As bearing upon this matter, we publish the following letter from the two brothers of John W. Stephens, deceased, and then ask an impartial public, what must be thought of a man, not to speak of a high civil officer of a State, who could send to Congress, and publish to the world, such a dispatch as that which went from Raleigh in regard to the death of Stephens?

YANCEYVILLE, N. C., June 2, 1870.

Editor of the Sentinel:—In view of the excited state of public feeling growing out of the late murder of our brother, J. W. Stephens, we deem it proper, with a view to its publication, to make the following statement in reference to the circumstances connected with this sad affair. A jury of inquest was impanelled on Sunday morning, shortly after the dead body was discovered, and was not discharged until the following Thursday afternoon. A large number of witnesses, both white and colored, was examined, which gave no clue to the perpetrators of this horrible deed. The officers of the law and the citizens of this community exhibited, throughout, a commendable zeal in endeavoring to ferret out the guilty party.

Certain prominent individuals were suspected, at one time, of having some agency in the murder; the evidence, however, elicited during the examination satisfied us, beyond a doubt, of their innocence. We feel it to be our duty to state further, that from the evidence adduced during the investigation, that we have not the slightest ground to suspect any citizen of this community of having any agency in the perpetration of this crime.

W. H. STEPHENS,
J. M. STEPHENS.

From the Wilmington Journal.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN—THE PARTISAN AND THE OFFICIAL.

So eager was the Governor of North Carolina to herald the violent death of Stephens, that party capital might be made of it, that he gave his official endorsement to the very sensational and false rumors which accompanied the earliest reports of the dead received from his party friends, and had them published to the world as true. It was announced in the Halls of Congress, over Governor Holden's name, that this man was murdered by a band of armed and disguised men, and that another Republican leader, the colored representative from Caswell in the late Legislature, had been driven from the county. These falsehoods were accompanied by a proclamation offering a large reward for the apprehension of the guilty parties. Besides the Governor's organ published sensational articles and the testimony of a man of notorious bad character implicating citizens of standing in other outrageous crimes.

All this, we are to understand, was done under a sense of official duty and the obligations of the official oath. To doubt that nothing was done not warranted by the demands of justice, or that any exaggeration or haste was caused by a desire to further the ends of party is, to doubt the honesty and impartiality of the Governor, under the most solemn obligations attached to his office. If we believe he has done his fellow citizens, knowingly or willingly, any injustice, or the State any detriment, he has forfeited his official claim to the respect of our people, and deserves their utter and universal detestation.

Has Governor Holden always acted thus when murders and other heinous crimes have been committed in North Carolina? Let us examine.

On the 24th of May, in Cumberland county, one of the most outrageous murders which ever occurred in North Carolina was perpetrated. We published the fact on the 31st of May and gave the particulars on the 1st of June. They were also published in Raleigh on the same afternoon in the SENTINEL. We have seen briefly but truthful particulars of this outrage in Northern papers, but the Raleigh Standard, as late as the 2d instant, has not even mentioned the circumstance as an item of news. We have seen no telegrams from the Governor to Washington; no proclamation for the arrest of the criminals; and it is reported to us that the officials of Cumberland are making little efforts to ferret out and arrest the perpetrators of this fiendish outrage. To be sure the McLeods were not Radical politicians, but they were very worthy and peaceable citizens. It cannot be possible that this fact causes the difference in the Governor's action. Do the horrid oaths which bind him to the fellows of the Loyal League override those which bind him to the people of North Carolina? Let us see.

In Jones County the Foscue family and Colonel Nethercutt were brutally murdered. No extraordinary action was taken by the Governor. They were respectable people, but not members of the League. Subsequently Sheriff Colgrove was murdered in the same county, and the whole country was excited over the false and exaggerated accounts of it, and drunken, riotous and murderous militia were ordered to the county, at great expense to the people.—Colgrove was a Loyal Leaguer and a convicted forger.

In Alamance women had been outraged, barns burned, and citizens shot down, and nothing was done for the public protection. Subsequently Wyatt Outlaw, the leader of these bands of rascals, was hung, and immediately the land resounded with the deed. Martial law was proclaimed, and the General Government called upon for troops, which were dispatched to Alamance.

In Robeson, Harnett, Granville and other counties, good men have been murdered, houses and barns burnt, and other crimes committed with alarming frequency, but the victims have been Conservatives and the criminals Republicans. These occurrences do not seem to have disturbed the Governor. We have no telegrams to Senators and Representatives, no proclamations offering rewards—not even the expression of sympathy for the sufferers.

We ask the people of North Carolina to say at the ballot box in August next if the Governor has not forgotten his official obligations in his fealty to his party.

SIXTH DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

In accordance with a previous notice given through the journals published in the District, the time and place having been indicated at a county meeting in Wilkes, delegates from a majority of the counties composing the District, assembled at Statesville, on June 2d, and proceeded to organize by calling Dr. J. W. Hall, of Rowan, to the Chair, and appointing A. B Howard and E. B. Drake, Secretaries. The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be to nominate a candidate for the 42nd Congress from this District. The question then came up as to the legality of the Convention in proceeding to business, as the call had not been made by the District Executive Committee, but by the people themselves. The question was thoroughly argued pro and con, with great ability by Messrs. R. B. B. Houston, R. F. Simonton, Dr. Keen, A. M. Bogle, Col. A. C. Cowles and others, and finally decided that, inasmuch as ample notice had been given, and most of the counties are known to have appointed delegates to attend this Convention, those counties that had failed in their representation, from any cause, would be expected, and desired, to acquiesce in the action of the Convention, and support the nominee, whoever he might be, for the harmony and success of Conservative principles. It was believed, that several counties had failed in their representation, owing to the excessive rains, high waters, and other causes beyond control.

The counties represented were: Iredell, Wilkes, Alexander, Rowan, Davie, Catawba; the Yadkin delegation being kept away by high water, and Mecklenburg by a session of the court.

The counties then proceeded to act upon a nomination, voting by counties according to the ratio of representation.

FOR F. E. SHOBER,

Iredell, 2 votes; Rowan, 2; Wilkes, 1 Alexander, 1; Davie, 1; Catawba, 1.

Catawba cast her vote for M. L. McCorkle, 1, and Wilkes for R. F. Armfield, 1.—Both Wilkes and Catawba afterwards changed for F. E. Shober, and his nomination was declared unanimous.

Mr. Shober being in town, a committee of two delegates, consisting of Messrs. Hunt of Wilkes and Houston of Catawba, was appointed to wait upon him and inform him of his nomination and request his acceptance. Mr. Shober appeared, tendered thanks to the convention for the honor done him, and, having but little time allowed him by the waiting train, briefly addressed the convention, to correct some false reports that had gained circulation concerning his admission to his seat in Congress, and his record in that body.—Suffice it to say, that his refutations were most conclusive and satisfactory to the large concourse of delegates and spectators present, who manifested their satisfaction and approbation with rounds of applause and renewed their confidence in his conservatism and unsullied integrity.

The following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by this Convention: That all Conservatives and Democrats in the counties not represented in this body, are cordially and respectfully requested to acquiesce in the action of this Convention in the nomination of Hon. F. E. Shober for a seat in the next Congress, and fraternally unite with us in securing by all honorable means his triumphant election.

Resolved, That our confidence in the abilities, conservatism and usefulness of Mr. Shober, as a Congressman, who will at all times seek the best interests of North Carolina and his country, is firm and unshaken.

On motion, the proceedings of this Convention were ordered to be published in the SENTINEL, American, Democrat, North State, Examiner, Observer, Bulletin, &c.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

THE STANDARD AND MOORE COUNTY.—We have not space to-day and will notice next week, the pretended testimony of one Daniel A. Graham, well known as a thief and outlaw. The same Graham swore as witness in court on the trial of his brother for killing and burning the family of Ed. Blue, col'd, that he and his brother were a mile off making shoes when Blue was killed, thus refuting the Standard's so called evidence. The negro himself swears the Grahams did the murder and not Ku Klux. This same Graham is now almost known to have been in the late McLeod murder. The McLeods too are grand uncles of A. H. McNeill, the popular and able Superior Court Clerk in Moore for 15 or 20 years past, whom Graham seems to hate and falsely charges as a Ku Klux. Graham hates Mc Phail too, whose horse he stole, and he hates Sheriff Worthy for bringing him to punishment for these crimes. Such is the Standard's witness.—Fayetteville Eagle.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—On Friday afternoon, at Rock Hill, as a cloud was approaching, a young gentleman of that village, by the name of Hutchinson, was stricken down by lightning as he was going from his father's store to the pump in the yard. He died almost instantly. A brother of the deceased, a student at Davidson College, was informed by a telegram to this place of the sad casualty and went down on the train yesterday.—Charlotte Observer.

LACK OF RESPECT.—We learn that the course pursued by a colored fire company of this city, in marching down as a company to the river, and embarking on a pleasure excursion, while their house was draped in mourning for the death of a fellow member whose body lay at the bottom of the river, leaving word that should it be found while they were absent enjoying themselves for it to be kept for burial until their return, meets the condemnation of the colored people generally, who think that some courtesy and respect was due by them as a Company to the memory of their deceased member. We learn that the company will probably be here in time for the burial.—Wil. Star.

$175 PER HUNDRED.—We were shown, one day this week, at Pace's Warehouse the finest parcel of tobacco we ever saw. The leaf is soft as silk, the fibre exceedingly delicate and the color beautiful yellow. It sold at auction for one hundred and seventy five dollars per hundred pounds. This tobacco was raised in Alamance county, N. C. by Mr. Geo. Jeffries.—Danville Times.

A mortgage from the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, to George S. Brown and Enoch Pratt, of Baltimore, for $8,200,000, was yesterday probated in this city. The stamps alone amounted to $3,200. This is the largest transaction that has ever been recorded here.—Wil. Journal, 4th inst.

THE NEW RELIGIOUS SECT IN BOSTON. A new religious sect has arisen in Boston, the members of which call themselves "Bible Christians." They think they have an insight as to the meaning of the Bible that has been given to none before them, and from this they have learned the mistake that has been made in the observance of the Lord's day. A converted Methodist minister preaches to them. He and they hold that he is a prophet of the latter days, and they point to a verse in Malachi in which his coming is foretold. The Lord has them in special care, as they believe, and they need take no thought for to-morrow as regards wordly matters. The whole Christian world is soon to join them, and this year, they say, will hardly pass before that result is made manifest. Holding these views, a teacher in one of the public schools—said to be a most estimable, practical and sensible lady, of several years of service in her profession—has resigned because of conscientious scruples as to teaching on Saturday. This new sect appears in this particular to tread on the heels of Judaism.

A New York paper thus remodels an item taken from the Star: "Some disloyal rats eat part of a colored corpse at Wilmington, N. C. The troops are to be ordered out. The friends of the deceased got too drunk while sitting up with the corpse to keep the rats 'shooed.'"

DEPARTMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA.
EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
OF
NEW YORK.

P. F. PESCUD, Raleigh,
GENERAL AGENT AND MANAGER.
DR. C. E. JOHNSON, MEDICAL EXAMINER.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A NEW SYSTEM,
devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,
and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of convert ng P licies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

As hitherto, I have been reetr cted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

Delegates to Franklinton can go and return for one fare.

NEW ADS.—Family Roe Herrings—a nice relish for breakfast, bacon and flour, by Douglas Bell.

Stoves—cheap, Crockery and Glassware, T. H. Briggs.

MORE SOUP.—Pepper and O'Connor will have, for the next three or four days, some of that excellent Turtle Soup, which they have been in the habit of furnishing to their customers. Families, by applying early, can be supplied.

A FIRST CLASS FEMALE SCHOOL.—We take pleasure in directing the attention of parents and guardians, to the card of the Misses Nash and Miss Kollock, in another column, announcing the opening of the Fall session of their school, in Hillsboro', on the 22nd July. We take pleasure, also, in recommending this school to parents and guardians having young ladies to educate, as one of very high claims, both in regard to the ability of the instructors, its excellent discipline, and the accessibility, healthfulness and social advantages of its location.

The present session will close on the 23rd inst., with a Concert under the direction of their accomplished Swedish Professor of Music, Mr. Lamm.

POACHER SURRENDERED.—Ransom Poacher, who shot Ransom Harrison last Wednesday night, and absconded, surrendered himself at Forestville, yesterday, to two colored men, Wm. Dunn and Henry Dunston, who brought him to Raleigh. He was brought before Mayor Harrison to day, who required of him bail in the sum of $5,000, which being unable to give, he went to prison.

We learn that the man he shot is recovering, and that there is now some probability of his recovery.

MEETING OF THE COURTS.—To-day was the opening of the summer terms of the United States Circuit Court, and of the Supreme Court of the State, in this city.

At 11 o'clock the Supreme Court was regularly opened, all the Justices on the Bench, except Judge Settle, who is absent at West Point. The examination of applicants for licence to practice law was entered upon. There were thirteen applicants, among them, we learn, is A. H. Galloway, the "hyaine" of the late Radical Senate. We will report the names of those who pass, when their cases are acted on.

The U. S. Circuit Court for the State, Judge Brooks presiding, opened at the same hour. The following constitute the Jury drawn and impannelled: James H. Satterwhite, Foreman, O. E. Harris, Wm. Weaver, R. B Smith, C. Towns, col., J. J. Hobby, Alexis Long, col., W. Rue, col., T. W. Pool, D. Blackmore, J. W. Hatch, Wm. Griffin, S. Curtis, col., F. Johnston, col., W. P. Taylor, F. A. Critchfield, C. B. G. Cole, J. T. Ball, H. M. Johnston, col., Stephen Beeman, col., and E. L. Parrish.

His Honor's charge to the Jury is spoken of as clear and comprehensive in style and appropriate in character.

We shall report such of the proceedings of the Courts, while in session, as we may deem of sufficient general interest, without attempting a general and full report of all their doings.

THE YOUNG HOUSEWIFE'S COUNSELLOR AND FRIEND.—Mrs. Mary Mason, of Raleigh, N. C., proposes to publish a book bearing the above title.

This book will give directions in every department of household duty; with ample receipts of the choicest kinds tried, and improved by the writer, very many of them, originating with herself.

This book was originally undertaken and designed, at the earnest solicitations of several young friends, about to enter upon the important duties above mentioned, and the writer trusts her endeavors may not prove unsuccessful, in accomplishing the object for which this work was intended, viz: to supply the young and inexperienced housewife with a competent counsellor and friend.

This book will be issued from the Press of J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, as soon as sufficient subscribers are obtained to warrant its publication. It will contain something like 300 pages duodecimo. Price $2 00.

The least amusing pastime,
Invented since the flood,
Is that of getting angry
And wallowing in the mud.
Whether the game be played
On the curb-stone or beside it;
'Tis equa ly unpleasant,
We know, because we've tried it.
Nuff ced.

Some of the Reds of Wilmington are dissatisfied with the nominations made by the recent county Convention, held in that city. They are going to have another one.

Geo. P. Dail, Esq., who was recently nominated by the Conservatives of Greene county, for the House of Representatives, declines on account of ineligibility.

The special election in Charlotte, Friday on the question of appropriating $3,000 for the purpose of purchasing grounds for the use of the Agricultural Society, resulted in favor of the appropriation.

COMMENCEMENT AT WARRENTON.—We had the pleasure of being present, last Thursday, at the Commencement of the Warrenton Female College, Rev. T. M. Jones, President; and can truly say, it was a pleasant and interesting occasion to all present.

At 10 o'clock the Chapel of the College was filled with an intelligent and appreciative audience of citizens and visitors, including parents and friends of the young ladies.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. L. S. Burkhead, followed by a chorus by the singing classes.

The reading of essays by the Graduating class then commenced, and progressed in the following order:

1. Salutatory Addresses, by Miss Fannie M. Jones, of Warrenton.
2. Subject—
"Who falls in honorable strife,
Surrenders nothing but his life;
Who basely triumphs, casts away
The glory of a well earned day."
—By Miss Ella F. Fulmore, of Robeson county.
3. Subject—"How shall we enter the arena," Miss Fannie M. Jones, of Warrenton.
4. Subject—"What shadows we are, what shadows we pursue," by Miss Annie E. Pierce, of Franklin county.
5. Subject,
"Ignorance is the curse of God,
Knowledge, the wing wherewith we fly to Heaven."
—Miss Lizzie L. Murray, of Hyde county.
6. Subject—"These Times," Miss Mollie E Littlejohn, of Franklin county.
7. Valedictory Addresses, Miss Mollie E Littlejohn of Franklin County.

The reading of each of these compositions, which was done by the young ladies themselves, was followed by music, vocal or instrumental, under the supervision of that accomplished gentleman and excellent musician, Professor Hahr.

Degrees were then conferred on the Graduating class, by President Jones, who delivered to the recipients an appropriate address, which was universally declared by those who heard it, as one of the most sensible, practical and timely of the kind they ever listened to.

The ceremonies of the day were closed with a Farewell Chorus and benediction.

THE CONCERT.

We do not wish to appear extravagant, in speaking of the Concert at night, but we fear we could not do justice to our own feelings or to the subject, without appearing so.

The Chapel was crowded and many had to leave, not being able to get standing room inside, while every window had its gallery of heads one above another, the owners perching themselves on goods boxes, ladders, or anything else they could get to stand on.

At 8½ o'clock, the school entered and took the seats reserved for them on the rostrum and immediately in front. The following programme was observed:

PART I.

1. Chorus—Again we meet.
2. Instrumental—Jubilee Overture. 3 pianos and 6 performers.
3. Vocal Solo—Star of my future Life.
4. Instrumental—Piano and Violin.
5. Song and Chorus—I've received a sweet letter from home.
6. Instrumental—Triumph March. 3 pianos and 6 performers.
7. Vocal—Comic.
8. Instrumental—Galiope Militaire. 3 pianos, 6 performers.

PART II.

1. Chorus—Distant Bells.
2. Instrumental—Overture to Gazza Ladra. 3 pianos and 6 performers.
3. Vocal Duett—Music of Birds.
4. Instrumental—March from the Opera Tannhauser. 3 pianos and 6 performers.
5. Song and Chorus—Ring the Bell softly.
6. Sentimental—Grand Waltz. 3 pianos and 9 performers.
7. Chorus—Vacation is coming.
8. Round and Chorus—Good Night.

The musical Instructors in the College are Professor F. J. Hahr and Miss Mollie E. Southall, an experienced and accomplished teacher.

The performers in the Concert were, Misses Fannie M. Jones, Ella F. Fulmore, Bettie Crowder, Ellen N. Hendren, Mary Crowder, Narcie Fonville, Emma Lunsford, Fannie Stedman, Pennie Hamlain, Alice Petteway, Lucy Suggs, Mollie E. Littlejohn, Lizzie L. Murray, Bettie Greene, Laura Williams, Lelia Debnam, Mollie Leake, Lizzie Pullen, Annie Day, Laura Parker, Dora Jones and Maggie Sugg.

Each of these young ladies played and sung as if she had perfect confidence of acquitting herself creditably, and succeeded. We do not pretend that all were perfect, nor that some did not sing and play better than others, but we are sustained in the assertion, by all present, that they gave evidence of intelligent instruction on the part of their instructors, and application on their own part, in the science of music.

We must close our notice of the concert, and of the Commencement, by returning our thanks to the President and his excellent lady, and to all the members of the Faculty, for the courtesies we received at their hands, hoping that the future of the College may be as prosperous as the past, and that it may be our good fortune to be present on many similar occasions.

SUCCESS OF A RALEIGHITE.—We are gratified to learn that our young friend, George W. Fentress, son of T. R. Fentress, Esq., of this city, who left this State to try his fortune in California, some time since the war, has met with success, as will appear from the following extract, which we clip from the Santa Clara, (Cal.) Argus of the 21st ult.:

ADMITTED TO PRATICE.—Geo. W. Fentress, Esq., has been admitted to practice in the District Court as an Attorney. He is a young man of ability and high moral character, and being a hard student, may reasonably hope to win distinction in his profession.

In another column of the same paper, we see that George has "hung out his shingle," as they say in the West, announcing himself ready to attend to the business of his profession. Success to him in his new field and his adopted home.

A. C. McIntosh is the Conservative nominee for the Senate in the 30th district.

Charlotte has milk thieves. They go around milking other people's cows.

The Conservatives of Caswell county have nominated Livingstone Brown for the Senate and E. R. Withers and Phillip Hodgett for the House of Representatives.

Married,

On the 4th of June 1870, by J. P. Adams, Esq., at his residence, MARTIN MCQUEEN, of the U. S. Army, to Miss. CAROLINE MCQUEEN, of Wake county.

DIED.

MATTHEW PETER JOHNSON, was born in Mecklenburg Co, Va., Dec. 8th, 1799 and died in Raleigh, N. C. June 6th 1870. He united with the M. E. Church South, in this City, in the Fall of 1869, and day by day strove to grow in the knowledge and favor of God, until called to possess the inheritance of the saints in light.

The funeral exercises will be conducted at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Jas. E. Lawrence, to-morrow, (Tuesday,) afternoon at 4 o'clock. The members of the Church and all friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend. COM.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Revenue receipts to-day over one million and a quarter.

John D Hoover is hopelessly sick.

Edwin L. Barbey is Federal Attorney for the Western district of Texas.

This evening's Star says, that the House Reconstruction Committee, by eight to seven have agreed to so amend the Georgia bill as to require the election of a new State Legislature the coming Fall.

Mr. Robertson reported to the Senate to-day a disability bill covering some seven thousand citizens of eighteen States and the District of Columbia.

HOUSE.—One hundred and twenty persons of Louisville, Kentucky, petition for a reduction of tax on manufactured tobacco to sixteen cents.

On motion of Sheldon, the Senate bill authorizing a draw bridge over the Alabama river near Selma and above Montgomery, was taken from the Speaker's table and passed. It goes to the President.

A bill authorizing an Assistant United States Treasurer in Baltimore, was passed.

The tax bill was resumed.

Schenck offered a tariff amendment, stating that he did it on his own responsibility, and not by order of the Ways and Means committee. He stated that the total reduction of revenue by the proposed amendment would be over twenty millions.

Schenck moved the previous question.

The House refused to second the motion by 90 to 83.

Schenck then withdrew the tariff amendment and moved the previous question on the tax bill. He finally renewed his amendment and moved the previous question, which was ordered.

Pendleton then moved that the House finally adjourned.

SENATE.—A joint resolution to increase the compensations of Assistant Marshalls of the census, was considered without action.

The Indian appropriation bill was considered, the debate being mainly upon the merits of the Quaker system of Indian treatment.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, June 4.—Judge Busteed of the United States Circuit Court, committed Reynolds, the Auditor of the State, to jail for four days for contempt of Court in refusing to obey an injunction restraining him from collecting 3 per cent tax on the gross receipts of the Southern Express Company which was authorized by the State revenue law, but enjoined by order of the District Court.

Auditor Reynolds was also fined $1,000 and required to refund the amount collected from the Express Company.

Reynolds is a leading Republican and an aspirant for the Governorship. His friends have called an indignation meeting, which is supposed will help on his chances.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—The Presbyterian General Assembly finally adjourned without any further important action.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, June 4.—The Grand Jury to-day indicted George Chahoon, ex-Mayor of this city, for forgery, and Johnson H. Moon and Richard S. Sanxay, ex-Confederate officers, for conspiracy to defraud the State out of seven thousand dollars, the amount due the State from the estate of Jacob Hornstein, who died intestate. It is charged that all of these parties after the war appropriated the estate to their own uses.

Mr. Chahoon was arrested this morning and bailed in the sum of $10 000. The other parties are now in custody, but officers have been sent for them.

In a suit originating in the United States Circuit Court, Chief Justice Chase decided as follows: The government of Virginia organized at Wheeling has been recognized by the government of that State. After all organized resistance to the national authority had ceased in Virginia, that government was established in usurped exercise of its authority at Richmond.

The government was established during the year 1863, after the insurgent government of Virginia was disposed of by the superior force of the United States, the civil authorities did not necessarily cease to exist at once to exist. They continued in, being de facto charged with the duty of maintaining order until superceded by the regular government.

This Common Council of Harrisonburg, though elected under the insurgent government, remained charged with the government of the town, notwithstanding the temporary occupation of the place by the United States forces. It might have been superceded, for the government of the United States was not bound to recognize any authority which originated with the Rebel government, but it was not superceded.

The Mayor and Common Council, therefore, exercising their authority derived from their election, and not by virtue of a military order, have no right to remove a suit from the State to a Federal Court, when that suit has been brought for an alleged false imprisonment, and malicious prosecution thereon, charged to have been committed by them in the discharge of their municipal functions.

The case was remanded to the State Court.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, June 4.—The press and business men are unanimous in their complaints of the mail irregularities be ween France and the United States.

The Bourse opened to-day excited, in view of the reported alliances between Russia and Egypt. Many common muskets and other war material have recently been ordered from Brussells and New York on the Viceroy's account. A large increase in the armament at the disposal of Egypt is evidently apparent. It is now almost certain that the Viceroy is preparing for a struggle against the sublime Porte, and that Russia will lend them her powerful assistance.

LONDON, June 4.—The Shipping Gazette of to-day has a vigorous leading article on the extortions practiced on vessels arriving at Cuban ports under the pretence of exacting fines for the custom regulations. The Gazette invokes a joint protest against this outrage to England and the United State. Commodore Ashbury has engaged to build another yacht if he fail to win next time.

MADRID, June 4.—The Englishmen who were captured by Spanish brigands near Gibraltar some time ago have been tracked by an emissary of the government. The prisoners were in good health and were well treated. Their final release is only a matter money. The government has already commenced negotiations with the robbers, but the subject is replete with difficulties, and it is feared no result can be reached for weeks.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Reconstruction Committee has adopted as a rule to remove no disabilities, except upon written application. The recommendations of friends or high officials are not regarded. The petition must be accompanied with expressions indicating a proper submission.

An authentic contradiction of the Jewish massacre in Roumania, causes great rejoicing throughout the country.

The House has adopted a resolution directing the Committee on Ways and Means to report a bill abolishing duty on coal.

SENATE.—Bills were introduced granting lands to the State of Alabama to aid in the construction of the Savannah and Memphis Railroad, one to prohibit contracts for the importation of Chinese Coolies.

NEW YORK.

TROY, June 6.—The Railroad bridge was set on fire and narrowly escaped destruction. The same bridge was burned in 1862, involving a destruction of the business portion of the town. A high wind this morning would probably have repeated that calamity.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Seven ships with Petroleum, departed for Europe with over a million of gallons. The shipments from this port are five millions of gallons in excess of the same time last year.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, June 6.—The Englishmen captured by Spanish Brigands have been rescued and have arrived at Gibraltar.

HAVANNA, June 6.—De Rodas telegraphs that 200 Spaniards and two gunboats dispersed the filibusters from New York, who landed near Nuevitas, killing ten, including Capt. Harrison, wounding two and capturing three. The prisoners were immediately executed. The steamer that landed the expedition escaped.

THE EQUITABLE HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1866 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1867 it was the 6th; in 1868 and 1869, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY COME DUE TO PAY THEIR AT ALL; but they DO NOT COME DUE TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at SIX per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜
is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

SPARKLING

CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Wednesday, the 1st day of June.

Being situated in the Northwestern part of the State, in a section remarkable for its delightful climate, beauty and healthiness, these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable Watering Places to be found.

The Mineral Waters of these Springs

Are the White and Blue Sulphur, and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of those waters, and are sovereign remedies for all Female diseases, diseases of long standing, diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach, kidneys, Pulmonary diseases, Eruptions of the skin, Scrofula, Weakness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, &c., &c.

From the numerous wonderful cures that have come immediately under my own observation within the last four years (by the use of these waters) I am satisfied that this is the place for all whose condition can be improved by the salubrious character of any water that flows from the earth, and the medicinal qualities of the same are not excelled.

Our rooms, in both cottages and other buildings, are large and pleasant; cottages containing from two to six rooms each, suitable for large or small families. Many rooms having been already applied for arrangements will be made to accommodate a large number of visitors, and it is to be hoped that our Southern people will patronize the Sparkling Catawba, which ought to be the pride of North Carolina, as well as the South, for no watering place can offer greater inducements for either health or pleasure.

The Bar will be supplied with choice liquors and segars. Good Ten Pin Alleys. Billiard Tables, one of which will be of the most approved style.

GOOD BATH HOUSES,

For Pool, Plunge or Shower Baths, hot or cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC,

Six or more performers, has been engaged for the season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have good attention.

The Sparkling Catawba this season will be under the management of Mr. John L. Eubank, (who, for the last three years has been manager at the Healing Springs in Virginia)—assisted by Mrs. M. A. Warns, and visitors may rely upon finding a good table.

The cars, on the Western and Morganton Railroad, leave Salisbury every morning, Sundays excepted, for Hickory Station, the Springs Depot, where hacks with good drivers will be ready to take passengers to the Springs, a distance of six miles, over a beautiful, well shaded road.

A GOOD LAUNDRY connected with the Springs and washing done at reasonable rates.

BOARD,

For four weeks, $48. Per Week, $15. Per day, $3. Children under ten years of age and colored servants half price. No charge for infants, or children under two years of age. Reasonable deduction made for large families who spend the season.

Tickets at reduced rates, or return tickets, can be had on the different Railroads to the Sparkling Catawba.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.

Open May 15th, 1870.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysintery. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "Rockbridge Alum." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.
